

Franco Selleri

Vita awards

Pecs, Hungary - On June 12th, 2010 at the University of Pecs, Hungary awards ceremony of the Telesio Galilei Academy of Sciences conferred upon Franco Selleri the award of "Telesio Galilei Laureate" for his contributions to natural philosophy, in particular for having obtained a new theory of relativistic phenomena. The award was given by Francesco Fucilla, founding father of the academy, and Jeremy Dunning Davies, president, and the chairman of the Academy Waldyr Alves Rodrigues, and the Vice Rector of Pecs University.

Bari, Italy - In February, 2010 at Bari University, the scientific commission of the "Renoir" Prize of the Region Apulia, awarded Franco Selleri the 2010 Prize Renoir. The prize was presented to Franco Selleri by the Rectors of the Universities of Bari, Foggia and Lecce.

Bari, Italy - On November 19, 2005 Antonio Hermann Carbotti, pro-Rector of the Mediterranean University "René Cassin", elected Franco Selleri as "Preside d'Onore" of the said University.

Varenna, Italy - On September 2nd, 2005 the director of the Congress Radiobiology Meets Radiotherapies in Neurooncology, Eugenio Benericetti, presented Franco Selleri a painted plate award for his contribution to physics.

Gdansk, Poland - In 1987 at the University of Gdansk, Franco Selleri received the Gdanskie Towarzystwo Naukowe medal for his life contribution to physics.